HR: Driving Innovation & Disruption

HR as a strategic business partner.

A ONE DAY INTERACTIVE EVENT INCLUDING A WHAT CEOs WANT PANEL!

An informative seminar and round-table exchange designed to energize, inform and empower executives, business leaders and HR industry people. Tired of the same old approach to Human Resources? Are you ready to start talking about talent in a whole new way? Talent management is important, but the real focus is on reinventing how people work – creating team-based tools for goal alignment and coaching; on putting in place systems to provide feedback and measure engagement; and rethinking the way we measure performance, manage careers and enable individual learning. Time for HR to be strategic. Come and find out how.

Dialog with CEOs

Come join a panel of CEOs to discover their challenges and objectives and how HR can transform from a supporting role to a major strategic partner and help an organization achieve its goals and vision. This panel is followed on by a round-table discussion session with all speakers and participants..

HR: Driving innovation & disruption

In the age of volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity, HR arguably plays one of the most important roles in an organization. Maximizing the returns of an organization's most valuable asset - it's people. See the trends and later, discuss in the CEOs panel how HR can make the difference in an organization and drive value and innovation.
